2001 Directory of Arizona Newspapers

The Arizona Newspapers Association (ANA) is a non-profit trade association representing more than 100 Arizona newspapers.

ANA was established in 1930 and incorporated in 1956. It is the successor to the Arizona Press Association of 1905, and the Arizona Daily Newspaper Association of 1922.

The Association is governed by an 11-member board of directors elected by the member newspapers. The purpose of the Association is to improve the quality of newspapers in Arizona through educational and training endeavors while strongly supporting the First Amendment.

ANA is a voluntary Association which represents the state's newspapers as their official voice in the Arizona state legislature.

ANA consists of two corporations:

1) Arizona Newspapers Association, Inc., the trade association;
2) ANA Advertising Services, Inc., a regular, for-profit company whose services include a "One Order/One Bill" advertising placement service, the Arizona Classified Advertising Network (AzCAN) and 2by2 Display Advertising Network.

In 1997, the Arizona Newspapers Foundation was formed. It is a non-profit charitable corporation, which assumed educational activities formerly managed by the Association.

Direction regarding Communications and Partnering Office (CCP) and our NEPA public involvement:

The CCP people will be attending team meetings and kickoff meetings. Their goal is to make all the ADOT public meetings more consistent. However, we have to meet the NEPA requirements and we still have a process and timeframe to follow.

The first time they attend a project development meeting, the EEG planner or the consultant needs to ask what involvement they would like in the NEPA public involvement process – what they would like to review, meetings (like the prep meeting for a public meeting) they would like to be invited to etc.

All ads are to go to Matt Budick for review. The EEG NEPA planner is to send the ad to Matt, not the consultant, and Matt's comments are to come back to the NEPA planner.

Timeframes are to be given to the CCP representative. If you have not heard from them, send a reminder close to the date comments are due.

If comments are not received within the timeframe given for review, we will go ahead with the Public Involvement process.

Remember to tell the team early on that we have to involve CCP and therefore must have adequate review times and adequate pre-meeting notice in the public involvement schedule. These one-day reviews will not be adequate.
