

The following language should be used on projects where millings will be placed near sign installations:

Material placed within 50' of either side of a sign installation, light poles, or pull boxes, shall be placed at least 4' away, longitudinally with the roadway, from the installation. The material shall be shaped to a minimum slope of 4:1 towards the installation.