NAVAJO COUNTY TO HOLD TRANSPORTATION MEETINGS

County to Gather Input for Regional Transportation Study

HOLBROOK/WINSLOW—Navajo County, in partnership with the Arizona Department of Transportation and the cities of Holbrook and Winslow, is hosting two public meetings as part of the process to develop a county-wide transportation plan on Tuesday, October 28. The county invites the public to attend one of two public meetings to have input on the proposed plan, clarify issues and make comments.

The two meetings will be held concurrently; one at the Winslow City Council Chambers of the Police Court Complex from 4:15 to 5:45 p.m., and the other at Holbrook City Council Chambers from 4 to 6 p.m. The content for both meetings is identical, with local Holbrook and Winslow issues presented at their respective meeting locations. A short presentation will be made at the beginning of each meeting, with staff available to answer questions and receive input for the full duration of the meeting.

The project team wants to hear from you regarding transportation connectivity and economic development opportunities, and needs your help to identify community mobility needs. The meetings are an opportunity to bring together communities, public officials and citizens to identify and balance the diverse needs throughout the county.

The study will result in a county-wide transportation plan that coincides with the previous and current efforts by the Arizona Department of Transportation for access management, transit, freight and safety. Goals include integrating multi-modal needs, understanding safety and capacity needs, and providing a freight movement plan.
