

URGENT STANDARDS
 At times the State Engineers Office may need to bypass the standards committee process for urgent standards that need to be implemented immediately. Once the action is taken the standard will be brought to the committee for discussion.